INTRODUCTION

This finding aid covers the gubernatorial papers of Tennessee Governor John I. Cox, who served from 1905-1907. It consists of thirty-six boxes of materials that consist of correspondence, applications, petitions for pardons, and miscellaneous materials.

There are no restrictions on the use of the materials and researchers may make copies of individual items for individual or scholarly use.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

John Isaac Cox
(Democrat)

The son of a Confederate soldier, Cox was born in Sullivan County in 1857. Working his way through Blountville Academy, he studied law and opened a practice in 1885. he served as county judge and as district attorney before being elected to the state house for the 1893-1895 term. In 1900, he was elected to the state senate. As speaker, Cox became governor when Governor James Frazier resigned in 1905. His term saw prison riots and a renewed fight against yellow fever. The official state flag, designed by LeRoy Reeves, was adopted in 1905. Cox served in the state senate 1907-1911 and in the state house 1913-1915. From 1914-1922 he was postmaster at Bristol. He died in 1946.
